Trans* 101

If you're a manager or service provider who wants to become more familiar with issues related to trans*, gender fluid or gender non-conforming people, this workshop is for YOU!

On Sunday January 29th join TransForming Connections to explore gender diversity with other managers and service providers in a safe and respectful space. This interactive and engaging 3 hour workshop is designed to help you become more familiar and comfortable with gender diversity.

Don't miss a unique opportunity to work with a transman, and his partner – both of whom are certified life coaches who want to help participants understand issues facing trans*, gender variant and gender non-conforming people .

Who: This workshop is for managers and service providers who want to better serve their clients and/or support their staff.

Where: An accessible space on Beechwood Avenue (near downtown Ottawa).

When: Sunday January 29th, from 1:00 – 4:00 pm.

Cost: The workshop registration fee is $75. The workshop is limited to 10 people on a first come, first served basis.
